Gentlemen:

We write in response to your letter dated today, February 18, 2019, seeking clarification regarding the news article entitled "Jolliville to relist hydropower assets" posted in Manila Bulletin (Internet Edition) on February 17, 2019. The article reported in part that:

“Jolliville Holdings Corporation of businessman Jolly Ting is planning to relist its water and hydropower business assets at the Philippine Stock Exchange after these were spun off a listed subsidiary and used as a backdoor listing vehicle of Udenna’s gaming and tourism businesses.

In an interview after the firm’s stockholders’ meeting, Jolliville Chief Finance Officer Ortrud Yao said they are looking at the possibility of listing by way of introduction.

‘The company is already looking at the listing by way of introduction,’ said Yao adding that they plan to prioritize the listing of Philhydro.

She said that, ‘right now, Philippine Hydro is looking at all the proposals from the industry to handle the listing. And we are also in discussion with counsel on how (to do it)... I think once all of that has been studied then there will be a formal announcement as to when it will happen and the timeline.

. . . .”

Please note that the above-quoted article is accurate, except for the part that states:

“Jolliville Holdings Corporation of businessman Jolly Ting is planning to relist its water and hydropower business assets at the Philippine Stock Exchange after these were spun off a listed subsidiary and used as a backdoor listing vehicle of Udenna’s gaming and tourism businesses.”

The water and hydropower business remain to be subsidiaries of Jolliville Holdings Corporation and neither were involved with the backdoor listing vehicle of Udenna’s gaming and tourism business.

We trust this clarifies the news article. Thank you very much.
